

CARDINAL STATION PROBATION ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

PLACING A STUDENT ON PROBATION

NAVIGATION: Records & Enrollment > Student Term Information > Term History

Click the Academic Standing tab. If necessary, use the left/right arrows to navigate to the correct term. This is generally the next term(s) after the term in which the grades were earned. E.G., if a student's fall term grades lowered his gpa resulting in probation, the probation status would be posted on the following spring term. If probation is a result of spring grades, the probation status would be listed on the following summer and possibly fall terms.

NOTE: If the student's probationary status continues for more than one semester, follow the steps above for each semester the student remains on probation.

REMOVING A STUDENT FROM PROBATION

Probationary status only appears on the terms on which you enter the PROB Academic Standing Action. In the system, the student is not considered to be on probation if the Academic Standing Action is blank. Therefore, there is no process needed to remove a student from Probation. You may navigate to the Academic Standing page for the term in which the student is no longer on probation to verify the Academic Standing Action is blank.
